

2025 Day of Caring Sponsorship

Celebrating 28 years of Working Together!

United Way of Mifflin Juniata's Day of Caring will be held on September 17, 2025. The Day of Caring is when companies and individuals come together to complete projects that benefit people and the community. Day of Caring is truly a time when volunteers celebrate the spirit of giving through service.

As a sponsor, you have the unique chance to be seen as a community leader while helping citizens and nonprofit organizations in our communities.
